CHOOSING YOUR RING SIZE

Take a ring of the right size, preferably a wedding ring. Use a ruler to check the inner diameter of the ring and choose the size in the table below: for instance if the inner diameter of your ring is 1.66cm, your size is 52. If the diameter measured between two sizes, chose the bigger one.

-Print sheet. Use a ruler to make sure that the "2 cm" reference scale at the bottom right is accurate. If the printed scale doesn't match (for example if it measures 1.9 cm with the ruler), don't use the circle to pick the size.

-Pick the size by resting the ring in the sheet of paper. The inner diameter of the ring must match the diameter of one of the circles.
